Dear Member,

We are heading into the autumn season with a variety of fun-for-all activities and adventures. To better serve you and keep you notified of our great events and offers, we will be sending a monthly newsletter in this format.

We hope you enjoy the October opportunities! Thank you for your continued interest in helping us preserve historic Bethlehem.

Nain/Schober House Needs a Roof!

The Moravian Museum of Bethlehem plans to restore the roof of this very special structure in the Spring of 2009 using an estimated 3600 red clay tiles.

We need your help to reach this goal. Purchase a clay roof tile for just $100 and be a part of the historic restoration!

To find out how you can donate a tile on behalf of your family or as a gift this holiday season, call 610-882-0450 x19!

Annual Schneider Lecture and Lunch

The Kemerer Museum of Decorative Arts is proud to welcome Frances Kiernan, author of The Last Mrs. Astor: A New York Story, for the annual Ernest M. Schneider Lecture and Luncheon.
